The musical score is written for a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano staff. The piano part features a complex, rhythmic accompaniment with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. Dynamics include mp (mezzo-piano) at the beginning of the first system, mf (mezzo-forte) at the beginning of the third system, and mf again at the beginning of the fourth system. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff, with some words connected by hyphens and others separated by long horizontal lines indicating sustained notes or breaths. The page number '4' is in the top left, and the title '1. Kesa and Morito (Kesa)' is at the top center. Measure numbers 21, 24, 27, and 30 are placed at the start of their respective systems.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of five systems of staves. The first system (measures 53-55) features a vocal line with a triplet of eighth notes and a piano accompaniment with a steady eighth-note pattern. The second system (measures 56-58) continues the piano accompaniment with a melodic line in the right hand. The third system (measures 59-61) includes vocal entries and piano accompaniment. The fourth system (measures 62-64) concludes with a vocal line and piano accompaniment. Dynamics include mp (mezzo-piano), fp (fortissimo), and mp (mezzo-piano). The tempo is marked 'Tempo primo'.

The musical score is written for a vocal part (labeled 'Wife') and a piano accompaniment (labeled 'Pno.'). The key signature has two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 4/4. The score is divided into four systems, each starting with a measure number (12, 15, 18, 21). The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef. The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) grouped by a brace. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff, with some words underlined. The piano part features a consistent rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, often with chords. There are some dynamic markings like '>' and '<' in the piano part. The score ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign in the final measure of the fourth system.

The musical score is written for a quartet of voices (Wife, Thief, Medium, Husband) and piano. It is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 4/4 time. The score is divided into two systems. The first system starts at measure 29. The Wife's part begins with a melodic line, followed by the Thief, Medium, and Husband. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more complex bass line. The second system starts at measure 32. The Wife and Thief have longer vocal lines, while the Medium and Husband have shorter, more rhythmic parts. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar pattern, marked with 'poco crescendo' and 'mf' dynamics.

The musical score is for a scene from 'The Medium and The Husband (No More)'. It features a vocal line for a 'Wife' and a piano accompaniment for 'Pno.'. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The score begins at measure 84. The Wife's part starts with a melodic line, followed by the lyrics 'No— more! No— more!' with long horizontal lines indicating sustained notes. Her final line is 'WIFE: "Kill him."' with a melodic flourish. The piano accompaniment consists of dense, rhythmic chords in both hands, marked with accents and dynamic markings. It transitions from a moderate texture to a very loud, sustained chord marked 'ff' and then 'fff' at the end, with the instruction 'fists on lowest notes, let ring' written above the final chord. The score ends with a double bar line.

The musical score is written for a voice and piano. It consists of three systems, each for a different character: Morito, Morito, and Morito. Each system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The first system (Morito) starts at measure 11 and ends at measure 13. The second system (Morito) starts at measure 14 and ends at measure 16. The third system (Morito) starts at measure 17 and ends at measure 19. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the right hand and a more complex, syncopated pattern in the left hand. The vocal lines are in a high register, with some notes marked with a '5' indicating a fifth finger. The lyrics are in English and describe a scene of seduction and violence. The first system ends with a long line, indicating a continuation of the melody. The second system ends with a long line, indicating a continuation of the melody. The third system ends with a long line, indicating a continuation of the melody. The piano accompaniment is marked with 'mp' (mezzo-piano) in the first system. The score is written in a standard musical notation style, with a treble clef for the vocal line and a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) for the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal line, with some words hyphenated across measures. The first system is labeled 'Morito' on the left. The second system is labeled 'Morito' on the left. The third system is labeled 'Morito' on the left. The page number '93' is in the top right corner. The section title '16. Kesa and Morito (Morito)' is at the top center. The 'P/V' label is in the top left corner.

The musical score is for a piece titled '27. Prayer Reprise'. It begins with a piano introduction in 12/8 time, marked 'Allegro' with a tempo of 150 beats per minute. The piano part is characterized by an 'agitated, sustained' texture, with a melodic line in the right hand and a rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. The vocalists (Actress, CPA, and Reporter) enter with a simple melody. The score then transitions to a vocal section where the three vocalists sing in unison, accompanied by the piano. The lyrics are 'Please for - give us, Fa - ther,'. The piano accompaniment features a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand and a steady eighth-note pattern in the left hand. The tempo remains 'Allegro'.

The musical score is for a scene titled "28. Rising, Up/Finale" on page 190. It features five staves: Act, Aunt, Rep., CPA, and Pno. 1. The Act staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. It begins with a measure marked "30" and contains the lyrics "Glow - ing, Glow - ing". Above the staff, there are two bracketed groups of notes: a five-measure group and a three-measure group. The Aunt, Rep., and CPA staves have treble clefs and contain the lyrics "ing, man - ic, burst - ing, —". The Rep. staff has a measure marked "8". The Pno. 1 staff has a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a key signature of one flat. It begins with a measure marked "30" and contains the lyrics "(8^{vb}) —". The piano part features a complex melodic line in the right hand with many sixteenth notes and a simpler bass line. There are several "6" markings above the right hand staff, indicating sixteenth notes. The bass line has a "6" marking below it. The score ends with a series of sixteenth notes in the right hand and a series of eighth notes in the bass line.
